Sound visionary and voice pioneer Chloe Goodchild, will introduce you to simple user-friendly and life-changing ways to connect with the authentic voice of your soul.

Meditative, spontaneous, and structured vocal practices invite a depth of self-inquiry and deep listening in a safe and supportive context.

You will soon find yourself expressing yourself and more importantly, hearing yourself and others in ways you never imagined possible.

You will explore your true voice as:

- a metaphor for life – how to live in harmony with yourself
- a musicianship of love – how to express the music of your heart
- a metaphysics of being – how to embody the sound of your spirit
