2-Day Retreat:

The Biology of Dying

Facilitator: Phyllida Anam-Aire

During this gathering we will explore the physical, energetic and spiritual dynamics of the dying process. You will be invited to work together in small groups looking at your personal beliefs to include fears about death and dying and letting go.

Phyllida is excited to share with you her life's work around the issues of death and dying. This has been her passion since 1983 when she met, trained with and worked for ten years along with Elisabeth Kübler-Ross M.D. in USA and Europe.

Phyllida's book "Celtic Book of Dying" was published in Spanish, German, French and English in 2005.
